

Bishop Gregory Lightner

Topic: Purpose

Bishop Gregory T. Lightner IV resides in Ridgeland S.C. along with his wife of 26 years, Elect Lady Karen Lightner. Together they have five children and four grandchildren. He is not only a man of God and a dedicated family man; he is also a highly sought-after Pastry Chef who delights in designing one-of-a-kind cakes and desserts.

Bishop Lightner was raised under the Pastor-Ship of the late Prophet James E. Peacock of True Church of Deliverance in Portsmouth VA.

It was there that he received Christ and was Holy Ghost filled at the age of 14. While living in Charlottesville VA, Pastor Lightner was ordained on July 18, 1998 by the late Pastor Lila Agee, Overseer of the body of churches: Pentecostal Assembly Church of Deliverance, Inc. in Danville, VA.

Bishop Lightner was ordained into the Baptist Body on November 13, 2009 by the late Pastor Prince A. Davis of 2nd Prince of Peace Baptist Church in New York City, N.Y.

It was on September 18th 2011 that Pastor Gregory Lightner was ordained as Pastor by Bishop Robert Branch of Healing Foundation Macedonia Church in Suffolk, VA.

God had been pulling on Bishop Lightner's heart to birth a church.

In July of 2011 he and Elect Lady became the Founders of Unity G.C.J.C. Church in Hardeeville, S.C. where he resides as Pastor; his mother, Apostle-Designate, Frances Lightner-Peacock as Overseer.

Bishop Lightner's ministry has expanded the East Coast from New York to Georgia. Whether in the pulpit or the Kitchen Bishop Lightner's character remains the same.

A God Fearing, Holy Ghost Anointed, Passionate for Christ, Man of God who is dedicated to winning Souls for the Kingdom.
